23 October 2020

Dear Parents/Carers

Order your 2021 Back to School Pack from 23 October 2020

Caloundra Christian College will again be using Impact School Supplies for our 2021 back to school products. With an office and warehouse located on the Sunshine Coast, Impact services customers on the Sunshine Coast and outer area, employs local residents, and supports local businesses every day of the year. They are also proudly Queensland owned and operated.

Impact delivers only the highest quality back to school products at very competitive rates. When ordering with Impact, you are buying the approved list of items as selected by teachers at Caloundra Christian College. Your child will receive the same items that other children will be using, sourced from the same local distributors (which will also save you time and money). Impact will be using their own delivery drivers and will make available a reliable way to track your order and delivery through the whole process.
